CREEPY CALENDAR

Carefully cut-out this week's second part of your calendar from the back page and, as last week, stick it on card, if you have any handy. Make two holes at the top, where the black dots are, then thread string, cotton or wool through the holes and tie the ends. Then your calendar will be ready to hang on the wall beside last week's first part.

WORD-MAKING WINNERS

Some time ago we asked readers to write to us with as many words as they could make out of the title 'WHOOPEE! AND SHIVER AND SHAKE'! Well, after sifting through all the entries we have come up with a winner. He is CARL DYKE from Burton-on-Trent, who managed an amazing total of 332 words, which means there is a £1 postal order on its way to him. But young RUTH PARROTT from Ashtead in Surrey came so very close with 327 words, we decided that she should have a special runners-up prize of 50p. Well done, both of you!

Dear Editor,

I recently went away for eight months, and where I went, they did not sell WHOOPEE! The other comics were so boring and no substitute for yours. Because of this, I had to find other things to do in my spare time. But as soon as I got back, I went to my newsagent and bought a WHOOPEE!, and do you know what . . . it's even better! SANDRA CLARKE, Port Macquarie, N.S.W.

Modesty stops me from commenting, Sandra, (makes a change) but thanks for your letter . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am writing to congratulate you on your posters. I think it would be a grand idea if you featured every WHOOPEE! character in turn. But when you printed the Daisy Bumpkin poster, you made a mistake. You showed Daisy playing with BROWN £5 notes, and they should have been blue.

ROBERT HOBSON, Charney Bassett.

Huh! It's a wonder the colouring artist didn't paint them GREEN, 'cos that's the colour he goes with envy every time he sees how much lovely loot those Bumpkins have . . . Editor.

PLEASE PALS . . . when you write in to take part in any of the participation features . . . fill in this coupon and attach it to your card or letter.

Dear Editor,

I have two favours to ask. The first is please could you print a picture of Michael Crawford who appears in 'Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em!'. The second is can we have a page for pictures of actors and singers?

CHRISTOPHER LOVERIDGE, Napier, N.Z.

We haven't really enough space to accommodate such a page in Whoopee!, Christopher, but we try to print as many as we can on the letters page . . . like your pic. of Michael Crawford here . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

My uncle is working in faraway Persia, but I see to it that he still gets the chance to read WHOOPEE! I send him mine when I've finished with them. Here's a picture he sent me of a Persian Temple.

JACKIE GOMBER, St. Helens.

Looks grand, but speaking . . . er . . . "persian-ally" I prefer to stay in good old Britain . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am from the R.S.P.O.C.T.F. (The Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Frankie) and if you don't stop that nasty Professor Cube from being horrible to Frankie Stein, you will have to pay a fine of £1.

LEE CROSSBY, Rochdale.

I asked Prof. Cube what to do, and he replied: "Pay the fine, Ed. Cackle! It's worth a pound just to be nasty to Frankie!" So a pound is on its way to you, Lee . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I, too, live in a town which has boasted some famous names as inhabitants. Comedian Freddie Davis (Samuel Tweet) lives just three houses away from me, and two popular authors also used to live in the district. One was Enid Blyton, and the other was G.K. Chesterton. There was a plaque on the front wall of the house he was born in.

BELINDA ASPIN, Beaconsfield.

Now you're in print, too, as the author of a published letter . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

My hobby is fishing, and just lately I've been trying to persuade my Mum to buy me a holder for my fishing tackle. I made my own fishing rod last month, and have caught 12 fish so far.

MATTHEW MONTAGUE, Derby.

Editorial man, Allen, and Alan, the artist are both fishermen. I can't see the point myself. Rather than sit on a river bank, I'd prefer to nip down to the fish-mongers . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I would like to tell you about my town's twin town exchange. Every year many children and a few adults go to our twin town, Creil in France. Six months later French children and adults come to our town, Nelson. This year I shall be going to Creil to live with a French family, and in September my French friend will be coming to stay with me.

BARRY SMITH, Nelson.

Sounds like a good plug for the 'Common Market'. Mind you, Ossie thought the 'Common Market' was a row of stalls in an alleyway . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am writing to tell you how much we New Zealand children enjoy reading your Whoopee! I played soccer for my school this winter and we won two cups in the competition. I am captain of the team 'United', and I enclose a photo of me and my team mates with one of the cups we won.

STEWART McCULLOCH, Napier, N.Z.
